Phi Sigs Come Next
With 500 Standing

By Frogge
The Intramural basketball season got under full sway, with the power teams of the circuit flashing an array of stars. The first game of the year saw the Faculty submerge the powerful Phi Sig (A) teams' hopes, by banging a two point defeat on them. This the first game revealed that the Faculty would be the team to beat to the crown.

The Sig Taus (A) team rolled right on along often a twin decision victory over the Cougars. They crushed the Cougars by 33 to 11, and then slugged out a point victory over the AG boys, who fought the whole game, but just didn't have the scoring punch.

The Orphans, who seem to need no mama or papa, are also one of the twin winners, and look one of the most all season to the Faculty's high scoring. Their game of the year saw them Rushin' started out with a bang! Guests, rushees, and actives gathered for a Smorgesbord supper . . . with all the trimmings . . . heart charms as gifts! Then came the annual Gypsy Dance . . . soft lights, "swell" music, and a grand time . . . and best of all, we pledged twenty-six darling pledges which made the whole season perfect.

Christmas soon rolled along . . . and off to Martha's for an exchange of gifts and greetings. February found us at the Alpha Central Station . . . Sociability Hall . . . for a super dance by the pledges.

A wonderful year was climaxed by our Breakfast dance . . . 5:00 a. m. . . . Imagine! It's light at that time. Another school year closed with "I'm a loyal Alpha Sigma Alpha . . . always!"

Looked just like a hay mow . . . bales of hay . . . old lanterns . . . jugs, pumpkins, and farm implements . . . a caller . . . fiddlers and the Deltas had an old fashioned square dance for a rush party this year.

Hats, gloves, best manners and the Deltas had a tea at the home of an alumna, Mrs. George Grim, for another rush party.

Marvel, Gloria, and Mildred went to Conclave at Denver, Colorado, and returned with ideas as to how Iota chapter could help win the war.

Bought a bond . . . donated money for a Red Cross ambulance . . . made kits for boys in the armed service.

Pi Kappa Sigma

Eerie lights, weird music, skeletons and black cats peering out from corners set the atmosphere for the first rush party, a Hallowe'en banquet at the Travelers.

Everybody went Chinese at the next party given at Mrs. Lewis Clevenger's. Kimonos, pajamas, chow mein, and chopsticks were the order of the day.

Founder's Day marked by formal pledging services and dinner downtown, the Christmas party with its contributions for a bond, and the Kappa Kid party, climax of Hell Week, were other highlights.

Sigma pledges entertain with a "dream dance" . . . A course of the progressive rush luncheon at Mrs. Reed's . . . "A couple of jiggers of moonlight and you" . . . Stampede on the steps . . . That's where we hang our sign . . . Part of the menagerie of the Sigma Circus: Dwarfs, Chin-Lan Park and Diana Stout and Clown, Bill Mackie . . . A continuation of the Circus at the house . . . Some of the twenty-four pledges . . . Keep singing girls.

Rush season was a gay one with its Sigma Soda Shoppe and Circus. Twenty-four girls rushed, pledged Tri Sigma.

Instead of having a convention this year as planned, national officers were sent to every chapter. Our visitor, Mrs. Lucille Morrison, national alumnae representative, spent three helpful days with us.

Enriching our social life, the pledges presented a program at the Christmas party and later entertained with a "Dream Dance". The money ordinarily spent for gifts at the Christmas party was given to the Salvation Army. The annual spring formal was given up this year and in its place the Tri Sigmas joined the other sororities in planning a Pan-Hellenic dance.

Three war bonds for the present to insure the future. . . "Gamma chapter will stay open if only one man is left on campus."

Sponsors: Dr. Wray Rieger (on leave, U.S.A.), Prof. D. A. Pierce (on leave, U.S.N.R.), Prof. Otho Barnett.

Sigma Tau Gamma

Officers at the beginning of the new year were: Charles Schmid, president; Charles Newbauer, vice-president; Dean Funk, treasurer; and James Handley, secretary.

Dr. Barrett Stout retired as our sponsor and was replaced by Prof. N. W. Rickhoff. Prof. N. W. Rickhoff retired to accept a position in Kansas City and Kemble Stout replaced him.

Sigma Tau Gamma

Beta chapter began its fifty-first year on our campus in September of this year. Activities started with a rush to the La Plata Lake for a picnic. Fall rush season ended with six pledges. . . Walter Beard was a fine papa bear . . . Winter quarter came with the annual rush banquet. Randolph Davis was speaker . . . Next came the 49'er Dance with the unusual decorations. Twelve pledges went through Hell Week, what with field trips for the Goats and Prexy Schmid. . .

Uncle Sam began to call our boys and Paul Myers, a past president, presented us with a service flag, which now displays over one hundred stars. . . The spring formal was held early to beat the call of the Army Air Corps. . . What a time. . . Red, white and blue, with the white rose as favors. . . Outstanding sport event was when the "B" team almost beat the "A" team. . . Then came that smoker at Kemble Stout's and three new Goats. . . A fine year indeed.

Blue Key

A national honorary fraternity, Blue Key serves the school and student body. The main purpose of the original chapter of the Blue Key was to sponsor Homecoming. Too bad! Homecoming had to be enjoyed this year by remembering former queens, attendants, floats and the grand old football.

Due to the war, Blue Key's activities have been limited. The Blue Key sponsored the Croatian musical organization, the Tamburitizens and sold tickets to a very successful performance.

One of the highlights of the year was the annual Blue Key dance with the cooperation of Cardinal Key. War stamp corsages made by Cardinal Key girls for the Blue Key-Cardinal Key dance put $50 in stamps in the war effort.

Other activities of the Blue Key include ushering at various events through the year and awarding a scholarship to an outstanding sophomore boy.

Cardinal Key

Yards of shining ribbon, acres of shimmering cellophane and brilliant crepe paper . . . oh, yes, and defense stamps . . . these were the principal ingredients of the "warchids", or defense stamp corsages, made by Cardinal Key which adorned every girl at the big Cardinal Key-Blue Key dance in February.

Officers for this year were: Amy Ayres, president; Jane Jarman, vice-president; Janice Timson, secretary; Martha Taggart, treasurer; and Emma Jo Leslie, historian. At the beginning of the spring quarter Margaret Richardson was elected president and Frances Raine vice-president to replace the two who were graduated.

Cardinal Key girls adopted a needy family at Christmas, gave money for first aid kits, worked at the gasoline rationing office, and gave two scholarships which were used in the fall quarter.

Seventeen girls were initiated throughout the year.

Teas were given at the homes of the sponsors, Misses Agnes Slemons and Nan E. Wade, during the year.

Alpha Phi Omega

The main project for the year for Alpha Phi Omega, was the fingerprinting of over one hundred students done under the general supervision of J. Edgar Hoover. . . . Initiated President Ryle as an honorary sponsor. . . . Hard hit by Uncle Sam, as practically all of our members are now in service.

E. L. Heying was president, Vernon Brockman, vice-president; Fred Kob, secretary; Clifford Foster, treasurer; George Heaberlin, corresponding secretary; Merle La Beau, alumni secretary. Prof. Ralph Shain is sponsor.

Members this year are Merle Le Beau, Vernon Brockman, E. L. Heying, Clifford Foster, Arthur Huff, Vincent Strangio, George Heaberlin, Weldon Winter, C. C. Thompson, Bill Deskin, George Hamm, E. L. Slaughter, Fred Kob.

Kappa Delta Pi

Intellectual elite! That's Kappa Delta Pi even though they are often confronted with baffling problems. . . . Yes, I think Maude Slocum knows the best kind of butcher knife for slicing ice cream, as she had to buy her landlady one after the social last summer. . . . Chef Rothschild, we'd like your recipe for glazed sweet jams. Remember that "ersatz" banquet Kappa Delta Pi gave when Mallincredit was initiated? Well, anyway they had the last course, cake and ice cream.

Officers of Kappa Delta Pi are: President, Amy Ayres; Vice-President, Janice Timson; Secretary, Martha Rinehart; Treasurer, Mrs. Wanda Holcroft Knapp.

Alpha Phi Sigma

An imitation "Information, Please" program and a talk on India by Prof. J. L. Biggerstaff were two of the highlights in this year's program in Alpha Phi Sigma, honorary scholastic fraternity.

A number of socials were held in addition to regular meetings.

Don Wilgus was elected president, but upon his graduation he was succeeded by Lois Drennan. Other officers are: Leonard Griffin, vice-president; Pansy Ewing, secretary; and Joe Ayres, treasurer. Noah P. Richardson is the faculty sponsor.

Each year Alpha Phi Sigma awards a scholarship to the outstanding sophomore member.

Membership is limited to high school valedictorians and salutatorians and college students who meet certain requirements. Thirty-five students were initiated this year, fourteen of these receiving Master's degrees, the highest honor conferred by the organization. There are now seventeen members holding Master's degrees.

One of the projects of the year was the preparation of an honor roll of members now in service.

Pi Omega Pi

On June 13, 1943, Pi Omega Pi will have its twentieth birthday. The Alpha chapter of this fraternity was established on the campus under the leadership of Dr. P. O. Selby, head of the Business Education Division. The charter members included thirteen students and two teachers. Since that time, the membership of this chapter has risen to 346 members.

Pi Omega Pi became a national organization in 1927, and now has fifty-six chapters in thirty-two states.

Talks by President W. H. Ryle, Mr. Henry Enochs, and Mr. Fisher; our banquet in January, and our initiations each quarter have been the highlights of the past year.

Front row: Dr. P. O. Selby, founder; Doris Pickens, treasurer; Clifford Chambers, president; Twila Jones, secretary; Miss Ruth Roberts, co-sponsor.

Pre-Osteopathic Club

The Pre-Osteopathic Club is an organization which prepares students for entrance to the Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery, organized in 1940. This year it is composed of eleven members.

This year the Pre-Osteopathic Club have had such guest speakers as Dr. W. C. Kelly, dermatologist; Dr. George M. Laughlin, president of K.C.O.S., and Dr. Harold D. McClure, Director of Public Clinics.

The following is a list of the members: Patricia Schultz, Grantsville, president; Glen Wise, Harris, vice-president; James Miley, Ottumwa, Iowa, secretary-treasurer; William Lewilyn, Novinger, corresponding secretary; Bob Maxfield, Glen Ridge, N. J., program chairman; Joseph Burnett, Buffalo, N. Y., conductor; Glen Moots, Brashear; Merle LaBeau, Kankakee, Ill.; Hollis Roberts, Novinger; James Clark, Ilpaso, Ill.; Vincent Strangio, Scarsdale, N. Y.; Dr. Mildred Gelbach, sponsor.

Honorary Art Club

The officers for the Honorary Art Club for the past year were: President, Bette Morgan; Vice-President, Roland Nagel; Secretary-Treasurer, Hortense Agee; sponsors, Misses Bracy Cornett and Dorothy Ericsson.

Art exhibits . . . an oil painting on one wall . . . a water-color on another wall . . . sculpture . . . block prints near by . . . realism . . . famous artists . . . naturalistic . . . grandfather's paintings . . . a student day-dreaming . . . hoping to become another da Vinci . . . design . . . a private collection . . . an easel . . . lettering . . . tea and cakes at the weekly meetings . . . guest speaker . . . a trip to Mexico by movies . . . ruined sculpture . . . trying again . . . why? . . . perspective . . . "Oh, I spilled my oil paints!" . . . another exhibit . . . Latin American art . . . weaving . . . pottery . . . jewelry . . . hand woven coat . . . jacket with bright colored animal figures for decoration . . . The Spangler Collection . . . life time hobby of a former student . . . etchings by Rembrandt . . . woodcuts by Holbein and Durer . . . cameo carving . . . miniature objects . . . pottery by Hopi Indians . . . visits from boys in the service who were former members . . . "Could we get sugar for the Club?" . . . plans for decorating the Christmas dance . . . "My Stars!" . . . pop corn . . . clay figures . . . all in all a grand year.

Ag Club

President, Melvin Thompson; Vice-President, H. A. Kirk; Secretary and Treasurer, Byran Hoerrmann, Jr.; Sponsor, Prof. Norvell C. Allen.

Pop! Hot dogs! Popcorn! started off the Ag Club with their first enterprise of the year operating a stand and a concession at the Adair County Harvest Festival.

The annual barnwarming brought the crowning of Retha Hepworth . . . now it's a wonder more fellows don't belong to the club. Bales of hay, overalls, and plaid shirts, and all the cobwebs of a barn brought to the Women's Gym provided the setting.

The Ag Club again brought in the huskies for a basketball team during the intramurals.

Programs of interest to every future farmer were held for the members. Occasional parties brought entertainment and food, most important of all.

By spring the club was pretty well disintegrated. President Thompson graduated, John Hoffman and H. A. Kirk were left in school. Junior Hoerrmann, Ralph Rice and Burrell Harris are serving on the farm. Johnny Kelso and George Street left the fall quarter and Uncle Sam called Clifford Cosby, Pearly Casady, Bob Duncan, Robert Gashwiler, Earl St. John, Max James, and Elmer Hatfield.

Le Cercle Francais

"La seance est ouverte" carries much meaning to the twenty French Club members meeting once a month to learn more about France, her language, people, and customs.

Highlighting the year were the annual Christmas party, undampened even though taking place during a blackout, and the Valentine party, featuring Prof. J. L. Biggerstaff in a program on French music.

Miss Nan E. Wade sponsors Le Cercle Francais and its officers are: President, Janice Timson; Vice-President, Margaret Richardson; Secretary-Treasurer, Isabel Weaver.

German Club

"Ubang macht den Meister" is the motto of every student in the German Club, for the purpose of this organization is practice in using the language. Through conversation, singing, and listening to records this purpose is being accomplished.

Until Uncle Sam's call left gaps in their ranks, the club met twice monthly; in the spring quarter because of small numbers, meetings were suspended.

Prof. J. W. Heyd sponsors the club. Its officers are: President, Roy Murphy; Vice-President, Ted Mallin-crodt; Secretary-Treasurer, Marjorie Kanouse.

Sigma Zeta

Three lifeless goldfish were the unexpected result of an experiment at one meeting this past year. The unorthodox behavior of these innocent victims was brought about after they were frozen in liquid air and failed to revive in water afterwards.

Synthetic rubber, betatrons, and cyclotrons were among the subjects discussed, the program theme being current scientific developments and problems.

Roberta Wagner headed Sigma Zeta, assisted by James Sage, vice-president, and Caroline Kennedy, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Frank Verbrugge is the sponsor.

Historical Society

Vernon Brockman headed the historical society for the past year. Other members were: Vice-President, Mary Margaret Jones; Secretary-Treasurer, Marjorie Deierling; and Historian and Reporter, Karleen Forbis.

This organization, sponsored by Prof. J. T. Angus, is primarily organized for students in the social science field.

Book reviews, educational movies, and speakers on today's problems were among the programs given. The discussions by Miss Lucy Simmons' Latin American History class and Dr. Noah Richardson's geography class were two of the outstanding programs.

Women's Athletic Association

Jump on the W.A.A. merry-go-round and away we go . . . Activities are galore . . . fun is comin'. Maybe there will be a stop at the cabin on the Chariton, or for more exercise, we don shoes, and here we go hiking!

Getting back to town. . . Grab that volleyball and serve it over the net, for we're in the tournament. Some of us are a little rusty on our dance steps, so a class is organized, and away we step-together-step.

When the air is nipplier, a game of basketball is called and the officials know their stuff, for they have been to Columbia and have their ratings. Polly is strutting with that national and Ada with the intra-mural rating.

It's time for the holidays and in keeping with the season, Santa comes to visit us in our own gym, so we have a big party for him. And then there's another party (not to mention a few weddings!) . . . That "Hick" affair calls for rummage of the worst kind, or what wouldn't sell earlier in the year . . . (and Martha's and Barbara's wouldn't).

Ouch! . . . Do your legs squeak like mine? . . . Oh, but modern dance is fun . . . and helps the waist line. "Take off your coat, and spit on the wall; grab your partner and promenade all" . . . we go for that square dancing in a big way . . . and we just picked it up this year.

Dust off those costumes, for it's our turn to entertain in assembly. We decide to show the rest how they did it . . . from the minuet to the age of jive. Yeal Castles!

Best manners and frilly frocks are donned when the delegates to State Convention entertain us with tea . . . and reports. Another tea earlier in the year was given during Teachers meeting for all our old pals who have been graduated.

Birdies fly when "sprig" comes . . . and the badminton racquets start swinging. Hurry and clear the track . . . here we come . . . the field day has arrived. On your mark! . . . Over the bar!

And on we go into the summer months . . . there's baseball to play, a dance for the Garden Party, picnics to plan, and songs to sing.

Officers: President, Doris Pickens; Vice-President, Barbara May; Secretary, Eileen Stein; Treasurer, Eileen Adams; Recorder, Martha Lierly; Historian, Mary Margaret Jones. Sponsors: Misses Frances Fuller and Thelma Dodson.

Speech Education

With the serenity of the ages in his face? Collins . . . of the "Barefoot nation" . . . As opposed to Barrymore Avie proffers only his right profile to importunate photographers . . . note the devastating angle . . . "Apple Sauce" as our big dish . . . "Upward and Onward" with its galaxy of stars . . . "Sanitarium" full of women . . . Miss Curtis in her wardrobe . . . "Daddy" Cornwell in person . . . All, unforgettables . . . Curtain . . . House lights up . . . "A grand show kids" . . . "Confound you! Why do you always squat when you get on stage" . . . "Magill, if you don't project I'm gonna stick a cob in your throat" . . . Imagine Magill not projecting, Deierling not reading, Mittendorf present, or Ethington not being hounded . . . It's Miami, eh, Amy . . . All over now isn't it Jane? . . . And didn't get you "purty part" . . . Oh, well, better luck on the "big" stage, with Ross, Buford . . .

Speech Education

A good year for debate. . . . Fisher and Rothschild. . . . What, again? . . . Take Regents Tourney . . . and twenty-five dollars apiece. . . . Twelve floors of girls at Bloomington. . . . Lloyd, Gene, Carl, and Bob win eight out of ten at Bloomington and seven out of ten at state, and came into Pi Kappa Delta along with Calista. . . . Amy qualifies for Special Distinction. . . . Calista Thomas elected president of Pi Kappa Delta . . . National Council member Prof. Sherod Collins; Associate Editor of Forensic, Prof. Cliff Cornwell; both from our chapter. . . . Remember Lloyd and the hidden key . . . "Come on Bea, cooperate." We look forward to next year.

Officers: President, Ted Huesemann; Vice-President, Isabel Weaver; Secretary, Beatrice Woods; Historian, Amy Ayres.

A.C.E.

The annual Christmas dinner and the dinner for the graduating members were the highlights of the year.

Members reviewed the Association for Childhood Education magazine at the meetings. Miss Ruth Curtis, Miss Berenice Beggs, Miss Frances Fuller, Mrs. Mary Brown and Prof. R. E. Valentine were speakers.

Rural Leadership Club

The Rural Leadership Club aims to furnish an opportunity for the development of professional and social leadership for those who are preparing to teach in rural schools.

Meetings were held monthly and the group discussed problems confronting the rural teacher. Miss Ruth Curtis and Prof. R. E. Valentine were guest speakers. The year was climaxed with a picnic in May.

Miss Sallie Pattinson is sponsor. Officers are Eloise Moore, president; Dorothy Dull, vice-president; and Marjorie Walker, secretary-treasurer.

Aeolian Club

A cultural and social fraternity, the Aeolian Club is just one year old. Requirements for membership are high and the applicant must be a music major or minor.

The club has one business and one social meeting a month, plus a program of educational value to music students. The club endeavors to create appreciation for fine music. Officers this year are: President, Jack Drennan; vice-president, Nona Claire Neet; secretary Dorothy Hardgrove White; treasurer, Lois Drennan.

Industrial Arts Club

The following are the officers of the Industrial Arts Club: President, Roland Nagel; vice-president, Melvin Thompson; secretary, Paul Oliver; treasurer, Kenneth Chambers; sergeant-at-arms, Seaton Bonta.

During this year the club has made model airplanes, helped with the decorations for the Christmas Tea and held a dinner with the Honorary Art Club.

The members of the club: Ray Boucher, Bob Souders, Melvin Thompson, Kenneth Chambers, Harold Burrus, Seaton Bonta, Bob Eger, Dale Hamlett, Leslie Shelton, James Looney, Roland Quante, Eugene Shreckhise.

Oxford Club

The Oxford Club was organized September 14, 1941, with the ideal of furnishing Christian service for those students so inclined.

During the past year the projects included missionary work at Decker Chapel, redecorating the club room and establishing a library there. The Oxonian, weekly club newssheet, didn't miss an issue.

The officers are: Martha McDuffee, president; Katherine Beshears, secretary; Irene Watt, treasurer; Mrs. Snyder, recreational sponsor, and Mrs. Francis Turner, club sponsor.

Baptist Student Union

Inspiration! Harmony! Fun! That's B.S.U. all in one!

Remember that first get-together acquaintance party . . . then we eagerly awaited the New Year '43 together . . . then came the banquet for the Inter-Church Council . . . On those cold, moonlight mornings, who could be seen along side Baldwin except Baptist students hurrying to get to Devotions by 7:30? . . . then those Sword Drills at B.Y. . . . lastly, the B.S.U. Banquet and installation of officers . . . The inspirations and fun will never fade from our memories!

W. B. Faxon, president; Roy Murphy, first vice-president; Barbara May, second vice-president; Evelyn Harlan, third vice-president; Leanna Moore, secretary; Nona Neet, treasurer; Linda Nester, magazine representative.

Christian Youth Council

The youth activities of the First Christian Church are carried on by the College class of the Sunday school and the Youth Forum group on Sunday evenings.

One of the projects of the year for the Youth Forum group was the giving of a student reception last fall for college students. Another project is the sponsoring of church services one Sunday evening each month. This group went Christmas Caroling.

From this group comes part of the leadership of the church and the members of the choir. Jack Drennan is the choir director and Lois Drennan is the organist.

The 'teen age group of young people is sponsored by Velma Yowell. The president is Berdella Freeman; vice-president, Marilyn Hill; and secretary-treasurer, Bill Shinn.

The officers of the College class are: President, John Lowe; vice-president, Lois Drennan; secretary-treasurer, Robert Jibben; and social chairman, Patricia Looney.

The officers of the Youth Forum are: President, Norville Schrage; vice-president, Billie Jean Hall; secretary-treasurer, Norma Fern Liedorff; and devotional chairman, Marie Martin.

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir is a selective organization and singers become members by trying out in the fall term of each year. During the school year other singers are selected as needed. This year has proved a problem because of the many boys that have left for the different branches of the service.

The Choir has given three performances this year. A program was given in the fall quarter in the assembly, the choir and band appeared together in a Christmas performance, and a group of numbers were sung at the memorial service for Dr. C. H. McClure.

The Choir, under the leadership of Dr. Barrett Stout, has done some fine work this year. To be a member is one of the finest experiences that can come to a student.

Baton Twirler

Karl E. Thurman, world's champion baton twirler, is both student and faculty member in the Teachers College. As a student he is a music major and as a faculty member, for four years he has taught a course in drum majoring and baton twirling. He has appeared at football games during his four years on the campus.

Band

The College Band, directed by Prof. Karl Webb, started the year with a concert for the Northeast District Teachers Meeting. Our next program was on Armistice Day, when the band played for the assembly when the College Service Flag was dedicated. At Christmas time the choir and band gave a joint program of Christmas music. Other activities in which the band participated included a political rally, a farm conference and a basketball game.

This year, eighteen men have been called into the armed services. In all, over seventy-five former band members are now serving their country, some of them playing in the bands of the Marine Corps, Army, and Navy. We are looking forward to the day when they all return and we can play "The Stars and Stripes Forever" with all its true significance.

Top row: Collins, Pigg, Deskin, Winn, Griffin, Mitchell, Jibbins, Webb, Epperson, Thompson, Handley, M. Cloyd.
Third row: Jones, G. Cloyd, Heuman, Rullner, Gleason, Slocum, Kachulis, Gilliland, McVey, Sangster, Creamer, Schrage.
Second row: Thurman, baton twirler; Cunningham, Warden, Miller, Grossman, Clark, Crossgrove, Stoops, Whitton, Flechman, Frogge, Heiner, Webb, director.

Pan-Hellenic Council

Officers: president, Irene Weger; vice-president, Martha Taggart; secretary, Leslie Mills; treasurer, Gloria Waters; sponsor, Mrs. S. H. Ellison.

Members: Wilda Lauer, Martha Rinehart, Betty Collop, Dolly Creamer, Jane Jarman, Maxine Mackie, Bette Morgan, Emma Jo Leslie.

Three representatives from each of the four sororities, namely, the president, the vice-president, and one other representative selected by the sorority compose the Pan-Hellenic Council. Serving as a governing body, the council directs the combined activities of the sororities.

An annual affair is the formal dinner planned by the council, at which the scholarship cup is awarded to the sorority having the highest record for the last three quarters. Instead of the regular spring dance that each sorority has had in the past, this year they combined and gave a Pan-Hellenic dance, thus saving for bond buying within each group.

Inter-Fraternity Council

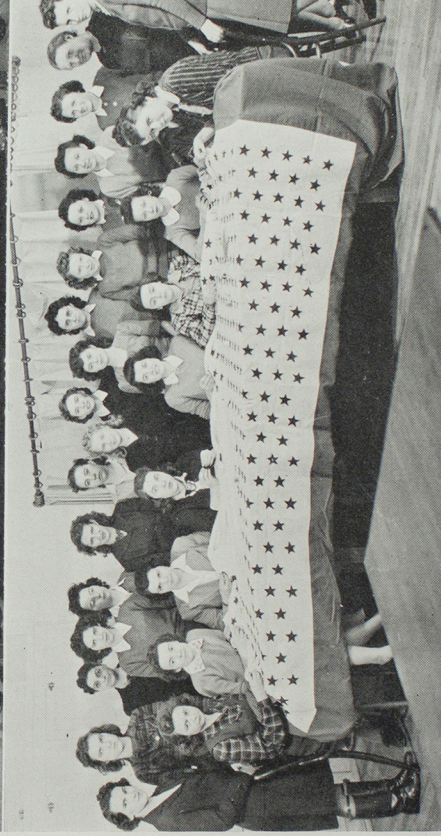

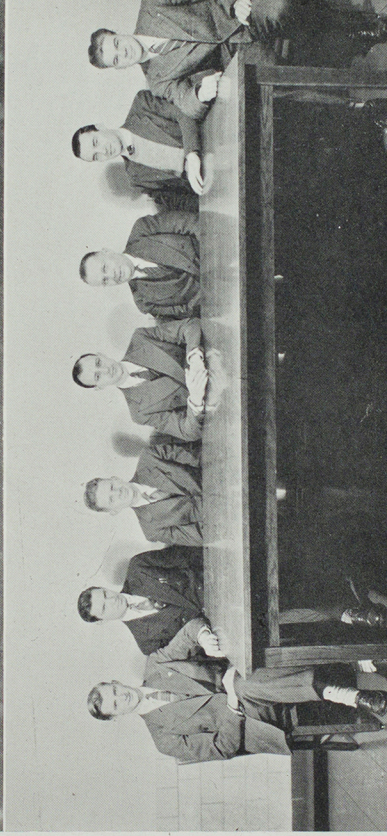

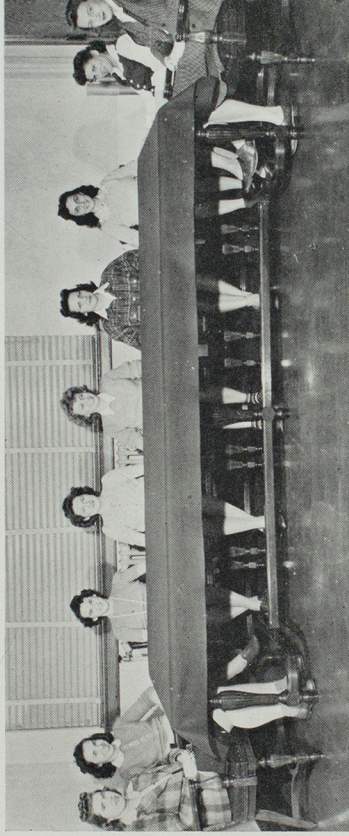

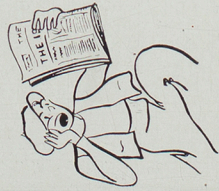

Yes, it was a fine year. Held a rush season each quarter. Rush functions were extra special during winter quarter. Keen competition with things fairly even all year. High spot of season was "Costume Brawl" given by the council for student body. Fraternity decoration and everything. There were many changes in personnel. Dr. Hollenbach took Dr. Bray's place as sponsor. Each fraternity was represented by three faculty members. The boys on the council this year were: Phi Sigs, Quante and Struby; Sigma Taus, Schmid and Drennan.

Ellen H. Richards Club

The Ellen H. Richards Club chose this year to make a service flag with a star to represent each former Teachers College student in service.

By working long hours on the flag the girls had it complete to dedicate on Armistice Day. It is to be kept up to date "for the duration."

The officers for the club this year are: Elsie Kimbrell, president; Coralee Barnes, vice-president; Martha McDuffie, secretary; and Mildred Ann Cornwell, treasurer.

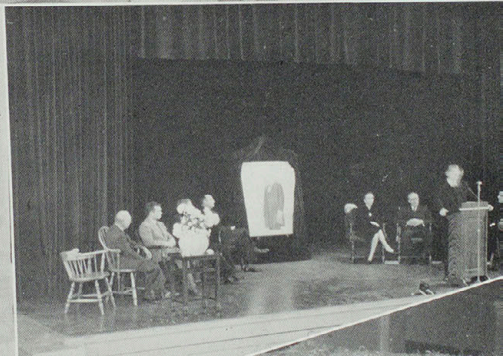

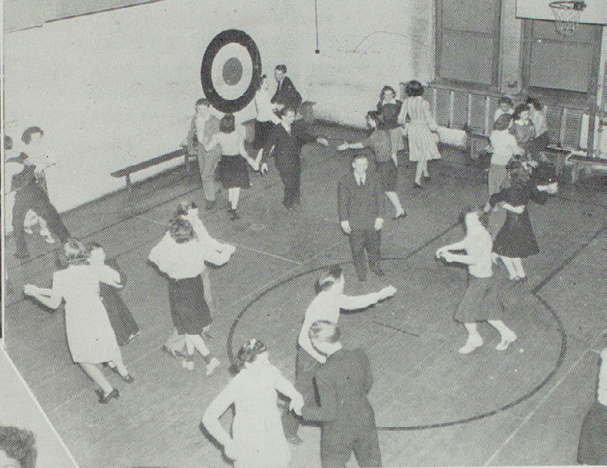

Student Council

"This afternoon, 4:15? Swell, I'll go . . . yes, I'll bring my activity ticket." Yes, another all-school show sponsored by the Student Council. Open houses . . . well they couldn't be beat when the Council was in charge . . . Christmas dance was the high light of the year . . . you're right, the Council again. Class teas and all-school dances came directly from the Council Office.

Due to the war and the number of students dropping out of school all the time, it was hard for the Council to plan entertainment on a large scale. This year the Council is helping the junior class finance the Junior-Senior Prom.

In the spring quarter a big square dance was planned by the Council for students and faculty members.

College faculty . . . It's the energy of the faculty and administration that keeps the wheels rolling.

Faculty and Administration

President Ryle

President Walter Harrington Ryle, the seventh president of the Teachers College, has brought to the school an enthusiasm and devotion to the problem of teacher training. This enthusiasm resulted from his experiences in undergraduate study here, graduate work in a teacher's training environment, and administrative service in public schools.

With the belief that teachers should have an understanding and appreciation of the world in which they live and a fine command of techniques essential to others, President Ryle has attempted to conform to the ideals of the founder of the college.

The President confers with the business manager and dictates to his secretary.

The first lady and Walter Junior.

The President studies in his office.

Board of Regents

The Board of Regents is the highest administrative unit of the Teachers College. It is composed of six members from various parts of the district, and the Missouri State Superintendent of Schools. Every other administrator receives his power through authority of the board.

Ideas and policies concerning the school are handled by these men at their quarterly meetings. They employ teachers, receive bids on work on the campus and buildings, and sign contracts.

The members of the board are: Judge J. A. Cooley, Kirksville; W. A. Cable, Hannibal; Roy R. Quinn, Moberly; Herbert I. Sears, LaPlata; Charles W. Shelton, Macon; Roland A. Zeigel, Kirksville; and Roy C. Scantlin, Jefferson City.

Dean of Faculty

Dean L. A. Eubank is dean of the faculty and head of the Division of Education. His responsibilities are many and varied, ranging from planning assembly programs to supervising the granting of credits, the giving out of information about students and former students to employers, and the arranging of class schedules.

This year marks Dean Eubank's sixteenth year with the Teachers College. Before coming to the Teachers College he had experience as a rural school teacher, superintendent of schools, an instructor in the University of Missouri, and Dean of the Faculty at Christian College, Columbia.

Dean Eubank received his B.S. degree from the State Teachers College, Warrensburg, and his A.M. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Missouri.

Dean of Women

Mrs. S. H. Ellison, dean of women, is the hostess for all Teachers College activities. As chairman of the social committee she has charge of all-school affairs and manages the school calendar of social functions.

The extensive orientation program and mentor service for freshmen students is under her direction. Supervising the housing of students, inspecting rooming houses, enforcing regulations and aiding students in social and personal problems are among her other duties. She is also sponsor of the Pan-Hellenic Council.

The work of the dean of women is correlated with other activities of the Division of Personnel Service.

Heads of Divisions

Prof. Noah W. Rickhoff is head of the Division of Personnel Service. This division of the Teachers College deals with personal problems of the students and the relationship between the students and the school. Much of the work of the division is carried on through the Bureau of Guidance, which Prof. Stanley Hayden heads.

Henry L. Enochs is director of the Division of Business Service, which is responsible for administering funds and the maintenance of the Teachers College. All disbursements of the College are made through his office. It also handles the Student Memorial Loan Fund.

Prof. J. T. Angus directs the Division of Extension Service. This division is the agency dealing with public relations. It is composed of the Bureau of Field Service, the Bureau of Correspondence and Extension teaching, the Bureau of Placements, and the Bureau of Alumni Service.

Forrest C. Crooks heads the Bureau of Field Service, Noah H. Richardson, Correspondence and Extension Teaching, Clifton Cornwell, Alumni Service. Mrs. Carl Noble succeeded Miss Marjorie Hardin as secretary of the Bureau of Placements.

Maintenance Force

The Maintenance force has the responsibilities of caring for the cleaning and the maintenance of the buildings and campus.

Third row: Darnell, Motter, Johnson, Scofield, Marts, Gentry.

Here come the boys and girls of the campus . . . we call them freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors . . .
the teachers call them students . . .
some people call them otherwise . . .
wolves call them often . . . This year found the freshmen wondering . . .
the sophomores, learning . . . the juniors, knowing . . . the seniors, without the men.

Air Corps Reserves Called

To Go on Active Duty
At End of Present
Quarter

Members of the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve will be called to active duty at the end of the current quarter, according to information received by Pres. W. H. Ryle in a letter from the War Department.

The letter, from Major Willis S. Hinch, Deputy Chief for Production, states:

"It is regretted that the extension of war has now made it necessary to call to active duty members of the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve, including those who have been deferred to Class C, as far as possible."

Football was voted out and Uncle Sam eliminated most of the basketball boys, but the Bulldog spirit refused to take it lying down. What remained of a basketball team was well attended with enthusiastic supporters. Next in order came intramural basketball, volleyball, paddle tennis and badminton with the interest thermometer hovering around the top till the end of the year.

In the Doghouse With Froggie and Lewis

Well, we really have a crush on the Orleans' Tuesday through didn't we? But the fact that they are going to be in a doghouse, fight, in the middle of a crowd, is a little bit more than we can handle.

By the way, speaking of the Orleans, you hold it was a little statement when we came last week with the Orleans' eyy yee. There actually was a fight between the Orleans and the Orleans' Tuesday through didn't we? But the fact that they are going to be in a doghouse, fight, in the middle of a crowd, is a little bit more than we can handle.

The situation in the Orleans' Tuesday through didn't we? But the fact that they are going to be in a doghouse, fight, in the middle of a crowd, is a little bit more than we can handle.

The story related by the book of the Orleans' Tuesday through didn't we? But the fact that they are going to be in a doghouse, fight, in the middle of a crowd, is a little bit more than we can handle.

Our tribute to the Orleans' Tuesday through didn't we? But the fact that they are going to be in a doghouse, fight, in the middle of a crowd, is a little bit more than we can handle.

Basketball

The Bulldog basketball team started out with only one letterman but the best freshman material in several seasons. After winning four of the first six games, Uncle Sam stepped in for his cut of players and the rest of the season was not so good. We wound up the season with four won and four lost.

The first game on the Osteopath home court was won by the Teachers College by one point. The return game, played at home, was a rough and tough game of survival of the fittest in which the Bulldogs proved their ability to take it. The final bell found a score of 57 to 31 in favor of the Teachers College.

Nine teams were entered in intramural basketball. They put on a round-robin of 36 games that brought the house down. The Faculty and Orphans came out with seven games won and none lost each. The play-off was a sell-out with the Faculty showing the Orphans how it was done to the tune of 21 to 14.

The Index

Thirty-five years of service for the Teachers College Index began in March of this year.

The Echo

The '43 Echo was really a problem child. What with a smaller enrollment, no football, fewer organizations and the smallest budget in many years we were hard pressed to find enough faces to fill that blank space between covers.

Last but by no means least, our editor, Martha Rinehart, resigned in September to accept a teaching position. Jack Drennan carried on as both editor and business manager with Irene Brown as assistant editor and Lyle Burroughs as assistant business manager. Miss Agnes Slemons is sponsor of the Echo.

Appreciation

As we come to the closing pages of this the '43 Echo, we wish to thank the student body and faculty for their continued interest and enthusiasm during the past few months. We hope you enjoy the completed book as much as we have enjoyed completing it and we wish to share credit with the following persons who have given such unlimited help:

Miss Agnes Slemons, adviser.

Mr. Robert Loewer, Engraving agent. The Indianapolis Engraving Company.

Mr. J. W. Patterson, Huston-Patterson Corporation, Printers.

Alexander's Studio, Photographers.

Mr. Landon Laird, About-Town Editor, The Kansas City Star, who selected our queen.

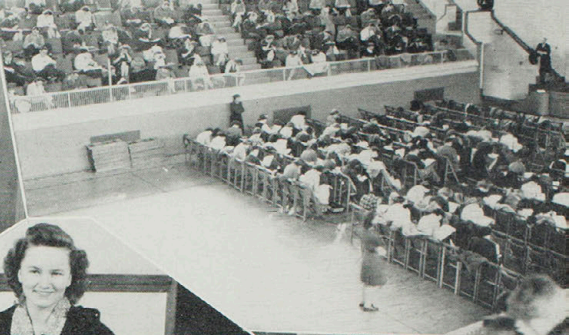

Mr. Clifton Cornwell, Sr., Director Bureau of Alumni.

Mr. Norville Schrage, Staff photographer.

Miss Hortense Agee, Staff artist.

And the following students who helped write our copy: Marcia Sidwell, Irene Weger, Janice Timson, Barbara May, Bob Rothschild, Dean Funk, Oakley Ethington, Margaret Richardson, Marjorie Magruder, Ruth Hensley, Gloria Waters, Jack Stokesberry, Jane Hart, Fred H. Smith, Loris Johnson and Prof. Karl Webb.

Prof. Hayden Gives Twenty-Fifth Annual Navy Day Address Observed at Teachers College

Brown up the good work, men. Let the people believe and have faith in you. Stanley Hayden, of the Naval Division of the Teachers College, featured these words secretary of the Navy Knox as a keynote of his Navy Day address. Prof. Hayden was the principal speaker on the Navy Day program at the Teachers College Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 12. The program was sponsored by the American Legion and Navy Mothers of Kirksville. Navy Day was established in 1922 as a day on which to pay tribute to the men of the United States fleet. The first War-service to the men of the States who have given.

Ensign James E. Walla, Navy; Lieutenant Latney, Naval Air Corps; and Lieut. William Slattery U. S. M. were representatives of the service.

Dean L. A. Eubank, Teachers College, introduced Navy Mothers, the Army Mothers, and Veterans of World War I.

Rex Slocum, second class, San Diego, Calif.; Camdron, apprentice seaman, Great Lakes, Ill.; and Riley, apprentice seaman, Great Lakes, Ill., all Kirksville boys were home on furlough and were introduced by Dean Eubank.

By Frogge The Intramural basketball season got under full sway, with the power teams of the circuit flashing an array of stars. The first game of the year saw the Faculty submerge the powerful Phi Sig (A) teams' hopes, by hanging a two point defeat on them. This first game revealed that the Faculty would be the team to beat to the crown.

The Sig Taus (A) team rolled right on along often a twin decision victory over the Cougars and Ag club. They crushed the Cougars by 33 to 11, and then Clat slugged out a point victory over the AG boys, who fought the whole game, but just didn't have the scoring punch.

The Orphans, who seem to need no mama or papa, are also one of the twin winners, and look to be a threat all season to the Faculty's high scoring. Their first game of the year saw them
